

IFSS Application for Enrollment for Nordic Training Camp for juniors and leaders Sandviken, Sweden • August 7-10, 2012

The International Federation of Sleddog Sports (IFSS) invites applications from member federations to attend a Nordic Training Camp for juniors (ca 16-22 years) and leaders in Sweden August 7–10 2012. The site for the camp is in Sandviken, 150 km from Stockholm airport (Arlanda). The camp will be dryland, for there is no snow in August in Sweden.

- The intention of the camp is to
  - o Inspire, educate and train juniors who want to develop their skills in Nordic style. They will also meet juniors from Sweden and other countries.
  - o Inspire, educate and train leaders who can teach youngsters/juniors in their home country or region.
  - o At the camp the participants will develop an action plan for their development work in their home country or region.
- The focus of the camp is Nordic style, but there will also be some training in Dryland/Sled.
- The training camp will be carried out at an annual training camp for Swedish youngsters and juniors.
- The international camp will be led by experienced national leaders. The activities at the camp will be led by young leaders in training, 20-25 years old.

The Swedish Federation kindly offers accommodation and meals for all participants at the camp.

IFSS has allocated a limited budget for travel support for international participants. You are asked to send to Sara Vanderwood (pulka4u@yahoo.com) no later than May 10, 2012, your application. Application can be found attached and also available on the mushing USA website: www.mushingusa.org.

Since the number of places is limited, the IFSS and the Swedish Federation reserve the right to limit the number of places allocated to each national member. The financial support offered by the IFSS will be announced after the deadline date for submission of the applications.
